

Please to not let the Consumer Bankers Association impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. You would think that as popular as the "Do Not Call" lists are that they would realize that the majority of us do not want unsolicited phone calls.